

Think about your troubles (Harry Nilsson)

G
Sit beside the breakfast table, think about your troubles

C
Pour yourself a cup of tea and think about the bubbles

F
You can take your teardrops and drop 'em in a teacup

Bb
Take them down to the riverside

G7
And throw them over the side to be swept up by a current

C7
And taken to the ocean to be eaten by some fishes

F
Who were eaten by some fishes and swallowed by a whale

Bb
Who grew so old

G7
He decomposed, doo doo doo doo . . .

He died and left his body to the bottom of the ocean

C7
Now everybody knows that when a body decomposes

F
The basic elements are given back to the ocean

Bb
And the sea does what it oughta

G7
And soon there's salty water which is not too good for drinking

C7
Cause it tastes just like a teardrop, so they run it through a filter

F
And it comes out of a faucet and it pours into a teapot

Bb
Which is just about to bubble --

G7
Now -- think about your troubles

C7 F Bb G7 C7 F Bb . . .
Ah . . .